

IP boutique Grau & Angulo is renowned as a specialist in the market, with five dedicated partners working in the area. The team has 'a vast knowledge of IP at both a national and international level and a good understanding of clients' needs and strategies'. Founding partners Alejandro Angulo and Jorge Grau, and partner Soñia Santos, are described as 'exceptional lawyers who live and breathe IP'. The firm defended Schindler in a patent nullity action brought by Otis, in a case affecting the most recent models of lifts by the two market leaders in Spain.